

TRUE VINE WEEKLY

Sermon: Jesus Our Living Hope (Never The Same)

04/05/26

Recap

The resurrection of Jesus isn't just a moment in history; it's the reason we have hope today. After dying on the cross, Jesus rose from the grave, proving that sin and death don't get the final word. Because He's alive, we can have new life, real peace, and a future filled with hope. And that kind of hope is meant to overflow, spilling into the lives of the people around us as we live out the mission of sharing what He's done.

Scripture Reference

Find a quiet moment this week to revisit 1 Peter 1:3–9. There's so much hope packed into these verses!

This Week's Keys to Remember

- God gives us new life because of His mercy.
- Our hope is alive because Jesus is alive, and that can't be taken away.
- Hard times don't mean God is absent. Even hard seasons are shaping and strengthening our faith.
- Someone brought you to Jesus... so who can you bring?

Lean In

Reflect on the following questions. And better yet, consider journaling about them!

- What stuck with you from Sunday's sermon?
- How has Jesus changed you since coming to know Him?
- Where is life hard right now, and what would it look like to trust Him in it?

Around the Table

Discuss these questions with family and friends, or even just answer them on your own. This is a great way to extend Sunday into the rest of your week!

- What does it mean that our hope is living?
- What's one way Jesus has changed you?

Try this:

Everyone share, "One way Jesus has changed me is..."

Talk with God

Prayer is key to growing closer to God. Try these options for getting into a rhythm of regular conversation with Him this week:

- Thank God for...
- Ask God to help you...
- Pray for someone who...

Live it Out

What is one way that you can commit to applying this week's message? Try one of these ideas for moving from inspiration to action or choose an idea of your own!

- Thank God daily for the specific ways He has changed your life
- Write down your story of how you came to know Jesus (keep it simple)
- Reach out to one person and intentionally encourage them in their faith

On Mission

Someone brought Peter to Jesus.

Someone brought you to Jesus.

Who is one person in your life who does not know Jesus that you can begin praying for or pursuing this week?

What's one simple step you can take? Maybe a conversation, an invitation, or sharing part of your story.
